enclosed) by Monday, June 19.

Knights are requested to notify the Commander of the illness or death of any member of the Commandery.

Orders $125 including Regalia
Dues $8.00 per annum Life membership $120

ATTENTION!

The ranking mark to be received by the Commandery will depend upon the number of Sir Knights in full regalia at the evening session at 7 o'clock P. M.

Every Sir Knight not in regalia, who attends, will lower the ranking mark.

Boston Commandery of Knights Templars

ASCENSION DAY SERVICES

THIS is on Sunday, May 16th. The Sir Knights will assemble in the Armory not later than 3 P.M., when the lines will be formed, and we will leave the Temple at 3.30 P.M. and march direct to Trinity Church.

The ladies will go direct to the church, where seats will be reserved for them. The services will commence at 4 P.M.

After the close of the services the Sir Knights and their ladies will proceed to the Copley Plaza Hotel, where an afternoon lunch will be served.
After the lunch the Sir Knights will parade back to the Temple.

RECEPTION TO GRAND MASTER M. E. SIR JOSEPH KYLE ORR

THIS will take place on Wednesday evening, May 26th. The meeting will be opened at 7 P.M. and a buffet lunch will be served after the meeting.

GRAND PARADE IN PROVIDENCE

THIS parade will take place on Thursday, May 27th. Sir Knights should report at the Armory between 7 and 7.30 A.M., so that the lines may be formed promptly at 7.30 A.M.

We will leave the Temple promptly at 8 A.M. and march to the South Station, where we will take a special train at 8.30 A.M. arriving in Providence about 10 A.M.

The parade will start at 11 A.M. and we shall be through about 12.30 P.M., when we will go the place assigned us, and dinner will be served to all the members.

Returning, the lines will be formed about 4.30 P.M., returning on the special train to Boston.

There will be no expense for this to any of our members.

REGALIAS

OWING to the shortage of labor and large orders, we have been unable to secure regalias in time for about seventy-five of our members who are very desirous of participating in the parade in Providence.

The Commander desires the use of regalias of such members as cannot participate in the parade, and requests any member who does not care to have his regalia used by one of these new members, to immediately write the Commander to that effect; and please reply promptly if you do not care to loan your regalia.

Otherwise, the Commander will assume that the members who do NOT write are willing that their regalias should be used for that occasion.

We ask this for the reason that we want as large a representation in Providence as is possible.

At the present time indications are that we shall have at least three hundred members in line, and also the Aleppo Temple Drum Corps, with ninety members in line.

TO MEMBERS DESIRING REGALIAS

THESE must be applied for at the Armory on Monday evening, May 24th, or Tuesday evening, May 25th, after 7 P.M. Nothing can be given out on Wednesday evening or Thursday morning, as there will not be time to attend to same.

SPECIAL INSPECTION NOTICE

June 15th, 1922

Sir Knights:—

It had been arranged to have our Inspection on June 22nd, with Sir Knight Warren G. Harding, President of the United States, as guest of honor. He also expected to attend Harvard commencement that day for the purpose of receiving the L. L. D. Degree.

I have just received a telegram stating that he could not leave Washington now in the present state of public business and has been obliged to give up going to both Yale and Harvard.

Our Inspection will therefore take place Wednesday, June 21st, and I hope you will attend just the same as you would were the honored guest present.

FREDERICK H. BRIGGS,

Grand Encampment Knights Templars, United States of America

OFFICE OF JAMES S. BLAKE
Grand Commander
387 Washington St., Boston

General Orders No. 3

Series 1922-1923

To All Knights Templars within the Jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery:

The following sentiment has been prepared by the Committee on Christmas Observance of the Grand Encampment of the United States of America:

To Sir Leonidas Perry Newby, Most Eminent Grand Master:

The Legions of Templarism tender to you the following expression of their Knightly aspirations and their fond hopes and prayers for yourself:

"As Knights of old selected their leaders and followed them unfalteringly into battle, so today the Knights Templar of the United States look to their chosen leader to guide them aright amidst the clashing of material interests and the jarring contests of classes, that the banner of Templarism may be borne aloft untarnished and the great purposes of the Order achieved: invoking for their Grand Master divine guidance in decision and spiritual strength in execution, with their prayers for his continued health and happiness, and that of those near and dear to him."

The Grand Master sends the following response:

"Sir Knights:

"The Templar hosts, more than four hundred thousand strong within the folds of the Grand Encampment, are expected to subscribe to the sentiment expressed as they have always been loyal to the government of the Order and have acknowledged their fealty to their officers, whosoever they temporarily were.

"Yet we must not lose sight of the fact that while we select men for a time as our chosen leaders, our Great Leader, 'He Who shed His blood for many, the Blessed Immanuel, the Prince of Peace, the Captain of Our Salvation,' is not only our real leader but the leader of all mankind: and if the jarring contests and the clashing interests of the world are ever to be reconciled, it will be by putting into practical effect the teaching of Him Who leads us through the trials and vicissitudes of this life, comforts us in the hour of dissolution and assures us of immortality in the world to come.

"The great question not only is, shall we put our trust in Him? but will we put into practice His precepts, one of which is Charity; charity not only for the opinions of others, but charity in administering to the physical necessities of the needy and distressed.

"Therefore, the central thought is to impress upon the minds of the members of the Valiant and Magnanimous Order of Christian Knighthood, that they should remember the injunction to 'Protect the weak, care for the unfortunate, and bind up the wounds of the afflicted.'

"Your Grand Master hopes and trusts that the membership of the several Commanderies will assemble in their respective Asylums on Christmas Day, the natal day of Jesus of Nazareth, the Saviour of the world, and take such action as will carry into effect one of the fundamental principles of the Order, remembering that 'Faith without works accomplishes nothing,' and that of the three cardinal virtues, 'Faith, Hope, and Charity, the greatest is Charity.'

Courteously yours,

LEONIDAS PERRY NEWBY,
Grand Master."

Address of the Grand Master:

LEONIDAS P. NEWBY, Knightstown, Indiana.

Sir Knights:

Complying with the request of the Most Eminent Grand Master Leonidas Perry Newby, and in heartiest sympathy with the sentiment expressed to him, and embodied in his most knightly and Christian response, it is my desire that all Templars within the jurisdiction of the Grand Commandery of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, shall on Christmas Day assemble in their several Asylums and at twelve o'clock at noon unite with the fraters throughout our national domains in doing homage to our Most Eminent Grand Master and in pledging ourselves anew to the expression of our allegiance to the Great Captain of our Salvation in lives replete with deeds of charity and pure benevolence.

This order will be borne upon the notice of the stated Conclave next preceding December 25, A. D. 1922, A. O. 804, and will be read at the head of each Commandery at said stated Conclave. Witness my hand and seal of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templars and the Appendant Orders of Massachusetts and Rhode Island, this twenty-fifth day of November, A. D. 1922, A. O. 804.

JAMES S. BLAKE,

Right Eminent Grand Commander,

387 Washington St., Boston, Mass.
